Pahokee Carnival Is Grand Success

The Halloween carnival at Lair Field Tuesday night was acclaimed as the "best" organized and most entertaining PTA Carnival ever held in Pahokee by the large crowd attending.

A profusion of toy balloons, gay streamers, gaudy costumes, and all the other trappings of the Halloween season formed an extravaganza of color that put the crowd in the light-hearted mood necessary for full enjoyment of the many forms of entertainment offered at the booths and concessions. While some got their spines chilled in the "House of Horrors" others, especially some of the students, were irresistibly attracted to the booth where the dignified principal of Pahokee Schools got a ducking every time a hard-pitched ball struck the burlap. There was fun for all, from the tiny tots to the graybeards.

One of the highlights of the evening was the crowning of Neely Johnson and Jan Bernhardt, eighth grade students, as king and queen of the 1951 carnival for receiving the most votes in the king and queen contest with candidates from the six upper grades competing. Runners-up in the contest, which netted $421.65 from the 42,165 votes cast, were Jack Miller and Laurie Ann Rockwell, seventh grade candidates. Lewis Collins and Sylvia Wilson, king and queen of last year's carnival, were in charge of the coronation ceremony.

First and second prize winners in the parade of costumes were: Preschool—Dot Emma Lair and Tina Handley, prettiest; Wayne Hundley and Andy Culbertson, most comical; Pam Boe and Barbara McKinstry, most Halloweeny. First grade—Alice Joy Wilson and Sara Ann Johnson, prettiest; Jimmy Vandegriff and Katie Chamberlain, comical; The Kennedy Twins and Buddy Lampi, original; Sharon Watson and Patsy Crosby, Halloweeny; Second grade—Vicki Alai and Margie Kahn, prettiest; Chae Chee Cate and Edward Fountain, comical; Joe Graham and Ronnie Kautz, original; Skeets Boe and Becky Mackey, Halloweeny. Third grade—Eddie Crews and Brenda Kay Unwin, first and Joan Hooper, second, prettiest; Tommy Culbertson and Alvis Davis, comical; Patsy Sheppard and Renzo Echols, original; Ladora Crosby and Janet Upthegrove, Halloweeny; Fourth (continued on page 8)

Date Is Set For Dedication Of Dock

It was announced at the Tuesday luncheon meeting of the Pahokee Lions Club that Nov. 11 has been chosen as the tentative date for the dedication of the new dock at the Pahokee waterfront. The Lions are cooperating with the Pahokee Rotary Club in the joint sponsorship of the dedication ceremony details, of which will be announced later.

A collection crew for the Lions scrap metal drive will be organized within the next few days, according to a report by Gil Galabon, chairman of the committee in charge of standing committees gave reports on club activities during the past month at the meeting.

Funeral Services For Canal Point Child

Funeral services for Margaret Ann Jones, seven-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jones of Canal Point were held at the graveside of the Port Mayaca Cemetery Wednesday at 10 a. m., with Rev. Kilhard, pastor of The Church of God on Canal Point Road, officiating.

The baby died at St. Mary's Hospital, West Palm Beach, Monday night. Survivors include the parents and a sister, Mary Jane. Berry's Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Full House Enjoys Charcoal Gaities

If you all weren't among the capacity crowd that saw the Pahokee Vesper Choir's presentation of its minstrel show, "Charcoal Gaities of '51," in the high school auditorium Monday night you all missed some good music and a lot of fun, which started with purchase of your ticket in the lobby from C. C. (Rastus) Crutcher.

Outstanding numbers on the program included the choir's singing of spirituals under the undulating direction of Mildred (Chocolate Drop) Todd and its stirring rendition of "Ole Man River" with Bill Hatton doing the solo part, Dick Atkins impersonation of Al Jolson singing "Mammy" and "April Showers," Louise Hatton singing "Stormy Weather," Malcolm Millar's nostalgic return to the "good old days of vodelv" in his robust vocal rendition of "Can't You Hear Me Callin, Caroline," and the Dark Notes Jazz Band's brassy tooting of "Dark Town Strutters' Ball."

The Choir will repeat the showing of its minstrel to the disabled veterans at the Veterans Hospital in Coral Gables Saturday night. Hope the Vets enjoy it as much as we all did.

Sugar Harvest Gets Under Way In Glades

CLEWISTON—A luxuriant crop of sugar cane covering 30,000 acres of Everglades mucklands under the knife this week according to Harry T. Vaughn, vice president and general manager of the United States Sugar Corporation, announced this week. "Every agricultural operation is dependent upon weather conditions," said Mr. Vaughn, "but since we are reaching the end of hurricane season with no damage, we feel we have only an early freeze to fear in our prediction of a record harvest."

The torrential rains of the first week in October were not harmful to the cane, which can stand a great deal of water, and all fields will be sufficiently dry for easy access by the field crews and machinery on the opening day of the season. The hot summer weather has provided ideal growing conditions for sugar cane.

The black leather stocks adopted as part of the Marine Corps uniform during the Revolution originated the nickname of "Leathernicks."

JOINS AIR FORCE

Miss Elizabeth Leah Ryals, daughter of Mrs. O. G. Ryals of Pahokee, leaves soon for service in the WAFFS of the United States Air Force. Since then she has done stenographic work and this week resigned her job with the Pahokee Drainage District to engage in her new endeavor.

The inscription on the plaque reads as follows:

The gift came as complete surprise to Commissioner Rardin who had been acting as master of ceremonies throughout the evening's Halloween carnival.

Blue Devils Go To Okeechobee Tonite

The Pahokee Blue Devils will invade Okeechobee this Friday night seeking their third win of the season in a non-conference engagement with the Catfish.

The Pahokee eleven, with a 2-4 record to date, and Okeechobee, 1-5, have played only one mutual opponent this season, the St. Ann-Crusaders, whom the Blue Devils defeated, 28-12, and the Catfish, 18-6. The two teams are evenly matched in weight and reserve strength.

Coach Dub Kendrick, expecting a close game, says the Blue Devils will go down in defeat if they do not show better spirit than they have in practice sessions this week.

With Tackle Jack Boland, who has been crippled with an injured leg, again in good condition, Kendrick will start his squad at full strength. Backs Carney Wilder and Bobby Schroder are expected to be the big guns in the Pahokee 'single-wing' attacks, both on the ground and in the air.

Okeechobee's Coach Marvin Hodges, who uses a T-formation, will depend largely on the running of Laverne Conrad and the passing of Billy McClelland to Ends Lorne Williams and Bob Lamb, for the Okeechobee bid for victory.

Against Fort Pierce on Lair Field last Friday night the Blue Devils mustered a strong defense that held the Eagles scoreless throughout the first half only to weaken shortly after the start of the second half and see their defensive line torn as under the Eagles, sparked by Fullback Bob Scharfswerd and Halfback Bob Neill and Bill Childress, culminated, unchecked drives for one touchdown in the third and two more in the fourth quarter to blank Kendrick's men, 20-0.

The Blue Devils' principal threat came in the second quarter when they stopped an Eagle drive cold and took the ball over on downs at their own 9. In a long drive, sparked by Halfback Bobby Schroder, the Pahokee lads in 14 plays moved the ball 90 yards to the Fort Pierce one-yard line where they lost the ball on downs to the stubborn Eagles.

WSOS TO MEET

The November meeting of the Canal Point Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service will be held Tuesday, Nov. 6, at 2:30 p. m., with Mrs. Earl Maxson, president, presiding.

Carnival At Canal Point Is Big Hit

Ghosts, goblins, witches, headless horsemen and various and sundry other spooky-looking folks paraded the school ground at Canal Point Wednesday night, creating a genial atmosphere of hilarity. An added attraction in the form of a talent show brought the thrilling evening to a close at ten o'clock.

The parade of children in costume started promptly at seven o'clock and judges were in their places ready to name the winners. The decisions of the judges were popular with the many folks in attendance.

In the pre-school group Sharon Johnson won for the most typical of Halloween and Gloria Jean Hall won for the prettiest. Grades one and two: prettiest, Betty Johnson and most typical, Mike Maxson. Honorable mention went to Ann Pope.

Grades three and four: prettiest, Rosa Lou Fleming; most typical, Larry Livingston. Honorable mention, Devine Dixon.

Grades five and six: prettiest, Martha Gail Ammons; most typical, Betty Sheppard.

Grades seven and eight: prettiest, Beth Smith; most typical, Judy Shackford.

The talent show drew a large crowd and each person attending dropped a cash donation in the box as they entered. A neat sum was realized for the PTA through this means. Two door prizes were given—one for men and one for women.

First prize in the talent scout show went to Pat Turbeville and Chat Clark. Second prize went to Eddy Parker and Dow McClelland in a black face comedy skit. Little Miss Velma Williams won third place with a song. Pat and Chat did a song with a guitar accompaniment. First prize was $3, second $2, third $1.

Paul Rardin acted as master of ceremonies throughout the evening.

News Notes From State Capital

TALLAHASSEE — In its first major act of discipline, the Florida Bar has recommended that the Florida supreme court suspend P. Guy Crews of Jacksonville for nine months for accepting legal fees without giving service. Subsequently, Crews resigned as county solicitor for Duval county and Governor Warren appointed Frank T. Cannon to the position. Crews has stated he will ask an early hearing before the supreme court. Under the integration plan for all Florida lawyers, the Florida Bar or parent organization is charged with investigating charges of misconduct among its members and recommending punishment. If the supreme court agrees with it after a review, it is the duty of the organization to mete out the discipline.

TALLAHASSEE — With many distinguished jurists and lawyers looking on, John E. Matthews of Jacksonville has been sworn in as a member of the seven-man supreme court of Florida. Matthews succeeds Alto Adams of Fort Pierce, who has resigned and apparently will become a candidate for governor. Matthews was a state senator for two terms, member of the lower house for two terms, and for many years has been a leader in Duval county. He and S. P. Robineau of Miami and J. Tom Watson of Tampa almost singlehandedly stood off the demands of little counties in the famous 100-day legislative session of 1931 and forced a more equitable division of the state gasoline tax than was proposed.

inspection is permissible, according to Attorney General Richard W. Ervin, if the state welfare board adopts proper rules to prevent the welfare names from being used improperly. The opinion came on a request from Comptroller C. M. Gay who asked for the ruling after Congress had changed the law to permit publicity on those getting help. State Welfare Commissioner Sherwood Smith is having a meeting of his board this week to study the new federal law and the ruling of the attorney general.

TALLAHASSEE — Homecoming here brought Dan McCarty of Fort Pierce into the spotlight for the first time since his formal announcement of a few days ago that he is a candidate for governor in the primaries of 1952. McCarty, his brother John and Mrs. Dan McCarty were guests of Florida State University and of local friends during the homecoming festivities. McCarty has been keeping his sights on the governor's chair ever since he was defeated by Fuller Warren three years ago. He is the only major candidate so far to announce.

TALLAHASSEE — New president of the alumni association of Florida State University is Mrs. Ellen Knight Whiteside of Miami, wife of Attorney Thurman A. Whiteside. She attended here from 1927 to 1931, is a member and first chairman of the Florida Children's Commission and otherwise has been active in children's work. Ben A. Meginniss of Tallahassee is vice president, Mrs. Margaret Walcott Higgins of Lake Alfred is secretary and Fred O. Drake, Jr., of Tallahassee is treasurer.

TALLAHASSEE — Attorney General Richard W. Ervin this week gave his official opinion on the following general questions:

FICTITIOUS NAME — Person may buy tax certificates under fictitious name if he otherwise qualifies by proper notice.

JUVENILE — County judge may appoint counselor under new juvenile court act if merit board fails to submit qualified applicants.

FISHING — Person using rod and reel must have fishing license, even though he is still fishing with worms.

VETERAN — Tax exemption is given to veterans retired because of disability.

POLICE — Without specific authority, city police court cannot issue state-wide warrants.

VOTING — Electors may not be segregated as to race in precinct polling places using printed ballots.

WATER — City cannot be required to pay interest on water deposits unless it has previously agreed to do so.

Christian Science Group Of Canal Point

Spiritual emancipation from crime and sin will be explained at Christian Science services next Sunday. The subject of the Lesson-Sermon is "EVERLASTING PUNISHMENT."

The Golden Text is from Lamentations (3:39, 40) "Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins? Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord."

Included in Bible passages is the following from Romans (6:16): "Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to who ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?"

Selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "Healing the sick and reforming the sinner are one and the same thing in Christian Science. Both cures require the same method and are inseparable in Truth. Hatred, envy, dishonesty, fear, and so forth, make a man sick, and neither material medicine nor Mind can help him permanently, even in body, unless it makes him better mentally, and so delivers him from his destroyers" (p. 404).

Dan McCarty Will Run For Governor

Dan McCarty, Fort Pierce citrus grower and candidate for governor in 1948, last week announced his candidacy for governor in next spring's primary elections. His announcement follows:

I shall be a candidate for Governor in the next Democratic Primaries and in due time I will announce in more detail the principles of clean, efficient, and progressive government which I will advocate and upon which I will seek your support.

I realize that by custom, announcements of this kind are delayed until a date closer to the elections. But I am impelled to speak out now for several reasons. First, I know in my own mind that I shall run, and to delay or evade a forthright statement would not be fair to the 276,425 people who voted for me in 1948 and to the additional thousands who have pledged their support. Also, the new campaign practice laws passed by the last Legislature impose duties upon candidates, an effort to assume full responsibility of compliance with all lawful requirements. Further, and even more important, I have been shocked by recent reports of deals, and combinations, and manipulations, and conspiracies, involving the governorship.

The "kingmakers" and professional politicians are busy. Their cry is "beat Dan McCarty." Why? The answer is clear. They know they cannot control him. Their political shenanigans have, and can only have, one basic aim and design and that is, by power piled upon power, to take and control the governorship which belongs to the people and which should be exercised for their benefit.

It is now clear that the people of Florida who want good government must prepare themselves for a fight and as a member of their team, I want to speak and act from here on in without anyone having any misunderstanding as to where I stand. The people of Florida and the entire nation have been shocked by the disclosures of graft and racketeer influence in high public office. In 1948, I told Floridians that I stood with my hands free of any trades or conspiracies; that I had refused to sell my soul to any group. I have steadfastly kept the faith and again want to ask all our people to join in this fight to restore confidence in government.

It's going to be a fight of the people against power politics. I am in the people's corner, and I am ready for the opening bell!

My State Campaign Treasurer will be Mr. Wesley Fly, Certified Public Accountant, P. O. Box 3507, Orlando, Florida."

The First Baptist Church was the scene of the marriage of Miss Betty Flore Speer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Lawson Speer, to Ernest Pogo Boland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Raymond Boland, Sr., Saturday Oct. 27, at 6:30 p. m. The Rev. Carl A. Morgan, Miami, read the vows for the double ring ceremony in the presence of a large group of relatives and friends.

The church was beautifully decorated. Potted palms formed a background for the large floor baskets of chrysanthemums, white gladioli and tuberose. Several seven branched candelabra and lighted tapers at the windows were used in the candlelight ceremony.

Mrs. Lex Green of Starke, aunt of the bride, presented a program of nuptial music at the piano and accompanied Miss Barbara Dalton, Memphis, Tenn., who sang "At Dawning," "I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The illusion yoke gave an off-the-shoulder effect with a French-pleated satin bertha outlined in chantilly lace. The fingertip illusion veil fell from a lace toque. She carried a bouquet of carnations and stephanotis, centered with two white orchids and showered with streamers of narrow satin ribbons and stephanotis. Mrs. C. J. Mrs. Speer, mother of the bride, wore a coral pink all-over chantilly lace gown with a cornet of lace and net. Her corsage was of orchids.

Mrs. Boland, mother of the bridegroom, chose an aqua chiffon gown with a small off-the-face white hat and an orchid corsage.

A reception followed the ceremony at Cypress Lodge. The bride's table, overlaid with an imported lace cloth, held a three-tiered wedding cake surrounded by small flowers and white satin leaves and topped with wedding bells. Mrs. Howard Payne and Mrs. David Blech, classmates of the bride couple, were in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Joe Thompson, Mrs. Clyde Griffiths also classmates, together with Mrs. W. A. Adams and Mrs. J. W. Barrett, served punch. Mrs. G. C. Lawton Sims and Mrs. G. C. McLarty cut the cake. Others assisting were Mrs. Horace Owens, Mrs. G. A. Batchelor, Mrs. Paul Rardin, Mrs. J. T. Pickett, Mrs. J. S. Chastain, Mrs. M. D. Geiger and Mrs. W. S. Evans.

Following the reception Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Geiger entertained at a buffet supper for out-of-town guests including Mrs. Y. A. Harris, Gainesville, grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Lex Green and children, Buzzie, Lu and Bill; Mr. and Mrs. G. J. McGriff, Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Canal Point, Fla.
Master Jessie Bordeaux,
Jacksonville, Fla.

Dear Jessie:

It may be news to you but there was an error in the columns of The Everglades News last week. The vital statistics editor messed up a story when he referred to you. Please dismiss it from your memory as soon as possible because you were referred to as a girl. It had to do with your weekly reading of this great palladium of the family fireside. I know that you, your Mother and Daddy enjoy The Everglades News each week along with thousands of other folks in Florida. The picture above is still good and shows you and your Mother reading a weekly issue. I sincerely hope you continue to enjoy the weekly visits of this popular weekly.

Hoping that we have done nothing to mar your birth record and realizing that a newspaper is bound to make a mistake once or twice in 25 years of publication, I am

Yours very truly,

Dixie County Over Top In Freedom Drive

JACKSONVILLE — Harold Colee, Florida State Chairman of the 1951 Crusade for Freedom campaign, recently announced that three counties of the state have already reported contributions in excess of their quota. The first to report they had gone over the top was Dixie County, followed by Lee and Hendry Counties.

Colee has announced that "our organization set-up, State-wide, is most complete, and we have had an excellent response in our 'nickel and dime' contribution." He added that the State headquarters is anxious to receive complete reports from the various county chairmen so that a final tally may be made as soon as possible.

A wire from Harold Stassen, National Chairman of the Crusade, stated, "The 1951 Crusade is a big success, but we do need to follow through on picking-up funds so vitally needed for the Overseas program."

The 12-5 daily double combination hit three straight days this past winter at Hialeah, something unequalled in the memory of veteran racetrackers.

90% For! 10% Against

Railroad workers are represented by 23 standard unions. By mutual agreement, 20 of these unions—comprising about 1,200,000 men, or more than 90%—are working under wages and rules agreed to by them and the railroads. But leaders of three unions—with only about 130,000 men, or less than 10%—still refuse, after more than a year of negotiations, to accept similar wage and rules agreements. These are even more favorable than the terms recommended by the Emergency Board appointed by the President.

Yes, it certainly seems to be finally about time that the leaders of the three unions stop their delaying tactics—their quibbling. But the leaders of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, and the Order of Railway Conductors continue to refuse. They continue a course of dillying and dallying. It is definitely time to END THIS QUIBBLING!

On June 15, 1950, an Emergency Board appointed by the President under the terms of the Railway Labor Act—an Act largely fathered by the unions themselves—made its recommendations on certain wage and working conditions ("rules" in railroad language) which had been in dispute between employees and the railroads.

More Than 90% of Employees Accept
Since then, terms equal to or better than the Board recommendations have been accepted by about 1,200,000 railroad employees—more than 90% of the total of all workers. They are represented by 20 of the 23 standard railroad unions.

Less Than 10% Refuse
But three unions—with about 130,000 men, or less than 10% of the total—have refused to accept, even after months of negotiations. These three unions are the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, and the Order of Railway Conductors. These are three of the so-called "open shop" unions in the industry, their leaders demanding further advantages over other workers.

In all, there are about 270,000 operating employees. But not one of them, by any means, are represented by BLE, BLF&E, or ORC. As a matter of fact, less than half—132,000 to be exact—are in these three unions. More than half—about 140,000—are in other unions, principally the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. What makes the whole situation so hard to understand is that these 140,000 operating employees are working under wages and rules which the leaders of the other 130,000 say they cannot agree to.

What Do the Railroads Offer?

They offer these three unions the same settlement which was contained in a Memorandum of Agreement signed at the White House on December 21, 1950, by four brotherhoods and the railroads. Later these brotherhoods sought to repudiate this agreement. But on May 25, 1951, the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen signed a complete agreement carrying out the principles of the Memorandum Agreement of December 21. They have been working under this agreement since May 25.

What About Wages?

Under the terms of the agreement, yard engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving a wage increase of $.34 an hour ($2.72 a day) and road engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving an increase of 19½ cents an hour ($1.56 per day). Large sums of retroactive pay have already accrued and if the agreement is carried out, will be paid promptly.

What About "Cost of Living" Increases?

The White House Agreement includes an "escalator" clause under which wages will be geared to changes in the Government's cost-of-living index. Two such increases—April and July, 1951—have already been paid to the 90% of railroad employees covered by signed agreements.

What About the 40-Hour Week?

The White House Agreement calls for the establishment of the 40-hour week in principle, for employees in yard service. The employees can have it any time after January 1, 1952, provided the manpower situation is such that the railroads can get enough men to perform the work with reasonable regularity at straight time rates. If the parties do not agree on the question of availability of manpower, the White House Agreement provides arbitration by a referee appointed by the President.

What Else Do the Union Leaders Demand?

The continued quibbling of the leaders of the three unions has to do principally with rules changes, which have already been agreed to by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. Of these, the principal one seems to be that having to do with so-called "interdivisional service"—runs which take in two or more seniority districts.

The union leaders would bar progress and efficiency in the industry, and better service to the public, by maintaining a situation where they can arbitrarily stop a railroad from establishing such interdivisional runs. The carriers propose that if a railroad wishes to set up an interdivisional run, the railroad and the unions should try to agree on such run and the conditions which should surround its establishment, and if the railroad and the unions can't agree, the matter will be submitted to arbitration.

But the three union leaders still refuse.

Rules Can Be Arbitrated

The railroads have not only offered these three unions the same rules agreed to by the BRT and covered by the White House Agreement, but have even agreed to submit such rules to arbitration.

The Industry Pattern Is Fixed

With the pattern so firmly established in the railroad industry, it seems fair to suggest that the leaders of BLE, BLF&E, and ORC stop their quibbling and take action to make the railroad labor picture 100% complete. Certainly today's economic and international situation calls for a united front. And certainly no good reason has been advanced why these three unions should be preferred over all other railroad employees.
